

16th April 2025

ABPAC Press Release – Acquisition of Marshall Wilson Packaging Ltd

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ABPAC Limited Announces Acquisition of Marshall Wilson Packaging Limited to Enhance Product Offerings, Strengthen Supply Chains and Extend Operational Reach.

Wincanton, 16th April 2025 – ABPAC, a leading distributor of packaging and print solutions to the Bakery, Butchery, Farm Shop and Food to Go sectors, is pleased to announce the acquisition of Marshall Wilson Packaging Limited, a renowned family run Scottish company specialising in packaging.

This strategic acquisition will enable ABPAC to expand its product range, leverage complementary supply chains and gain warehousing and distribution capabilities within the Scottish market to better serve its customers. The integration of Marshall Wilson's robust supply chain with ABPAC's existing infrastructure will create a powerful synergy, allowing the combined company to offer a wider array of products and better service to ABPAC and Marshall Wilson customers based in the region.

"We are thrilled to welcome Marshall Wilson to the ABPAC family" said Giles Hill Managing Director of ABPAC. "Their expertise and product offering complements our own whilst addressing new markets, and together, we will be able to provide even greater value to our customers. This acquisition marks a significant milestone in our growth strategy and reinforces our commitment to customer service, expanding our offering and footprint in the UK."

"We are excited about the opportunities this acquisition will bring for our customers and staff" said Ian Queen, Sales Director of Marshall Wilson. "Joining forces with ABPAC will allow us to leverage their extensive resources and expertise to better serve our customers and drive growth."

ABPAC and Marshall Wilson management will work closely together to ensure a smooth integration process, maintaining high standards of service and quality.